Susan's journey began with a small innocuous present under the Christmas tree; a basket weaving kit. That little kit started her on an adventure that has continued for 33 years. From that flat reed basket kit, she discovered round reed weaving and all the possibilities it brings. Most recently she discovered acrylic paint blooms. When she discovered she could marry round reed weaving with acrylic bloom painting, it was a "Eureka!" moment. She enjoys passing along her passion through teaching others how to create practical art.
